SAILORS WARM UP FOR THE START OF THE ANNUAL BERKSHIRE CUP REGATTA

WATITOH'S TRADITIONS CONTINUE

The lighting of the Birthday Banquet candles commemorates the passing of another year in Watitoh's rich history. Founded in 1937, and owned by the Hoch family since 1960, Camp Watitoh continues to be a special place where boys and girls can easily feel good about themselves and enjoy the excitement of a summer camping adventure together.

The 1989 camp season saw Watitohans reach new heights in all activity areas, whether it be on land, in the water, or in the creative and performing arts. Led by veteran H.C.'s Scott Kinney and Sue Woodford and an outstanding counselor staff, campers once again enjoyed a broad variety of traditional camp events, many of which are shown on the pages of this calendar, amid an atmosphere of high spirit and friendship.

As we enter our fourth decade of family ownership, we look forward to continuing many warm relationships with campers and counselors, new and old, as we spend our summers together on the sunny shores of Center Lake.
