A Summer to Remember

We look back fondly on the summer of '93 ... beautiful weather, a great succession of activities and events, exciting trips, and, of course, an outstanding group of campers and counselors who made it all happen.

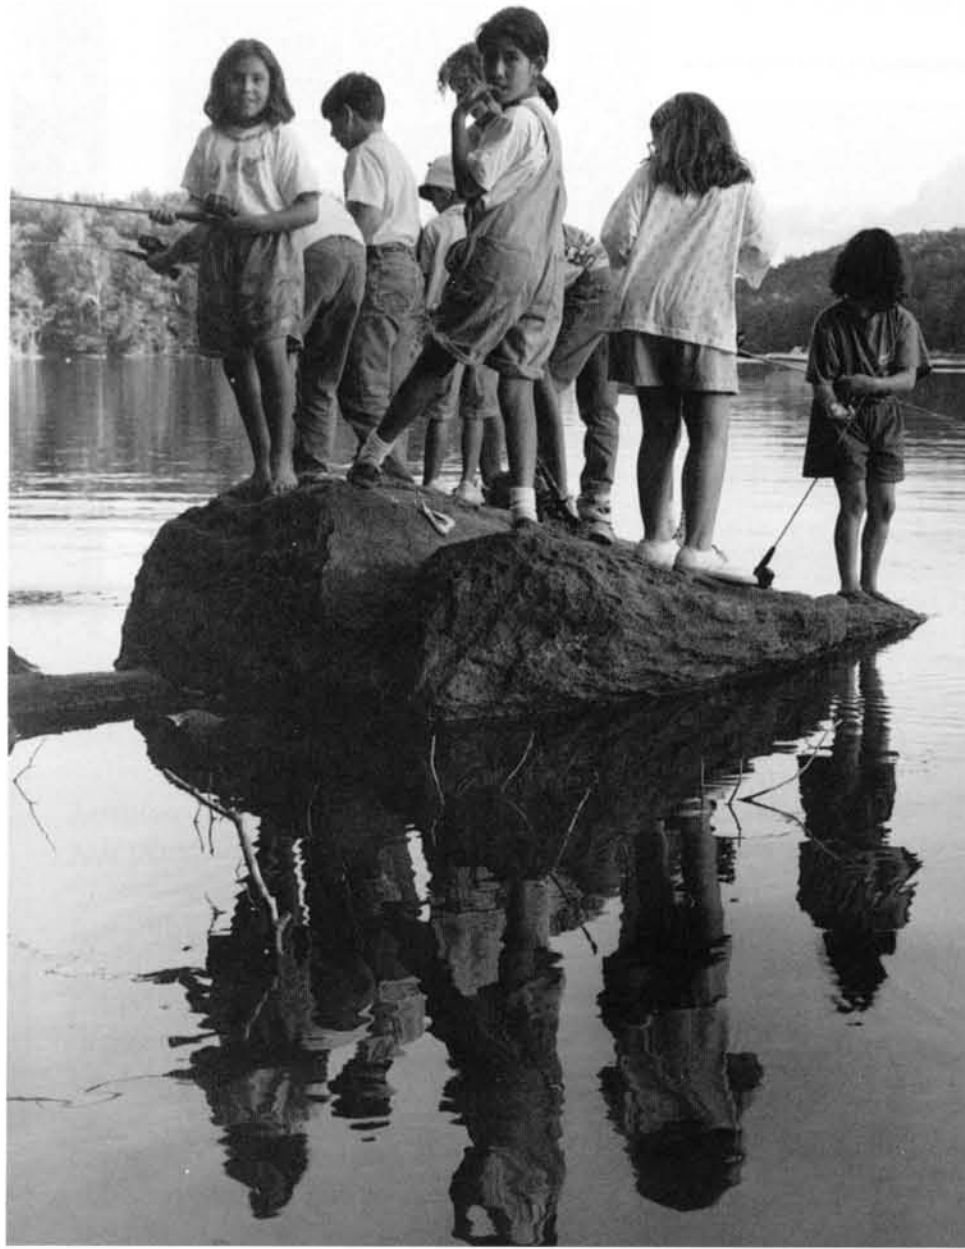

As you flip through the pages that follow, you will be taken back to many of those memorable moments. Whether it be our three wonderful shows, SING, the narrow margin battle at Watitoh Gardens, or that wild scene in the Mess Hall when we cracked open our fortune cookies to discover the break of Olympiad, you are sure to be reminded of all of the happy times that made the 1993 camp season so special for everyone.

We hope that you enjoy your calendar, and we look forward to seeing all of you back at Watitoh in '94.

Sandy, Billy, Suzanne & Robby

Thanks, once again, to Kim Smith for all of her fine photography.
