SIXTY YEARS STRONG

1996 - the sixtieth anniversary summer of Camp Watitoh - marked a proud achievement in Watitoh's rich history, as campers and counselors once again enjoyed a wide variety of memorable events with good friends amidst the scenic beauty of the Berkshires.

This calendar captures the highlights, and special candid moments, of '96 ... from the Waiters' nail-biting, unimaginable victory in Watitoh Gardens; to the splendor of three fabulous musicals and a Talent Show packed with star-quality; to the "cavalry charge" that opened three action-filled days of Olympiad, and many, many more.

We hope that you savor every memory that is brought back to life in this calendar, and look forward to enjoying another great summer with all of you in 1997.
